We are Torch-Bearers of the Good News

As the date of an Olympic games draw near, runners carry a flaming torch from the site of the old games to the site of the new ones. As privileged as these torch-bearers are, Christians have a much greater privilege. We carry the resurrection torch to all peoples, giving them fullness of life.

The first and second readings remind us that if we are to be good torch-bearers, we must be closely united to one another. As Luke puts it in Acts, "The community of believers was of one heart and mind". The second reading tells us, "We know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments".

In the gospel, John tells us how the risen Jesus first appeared to his disciples and said to them, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you". When Jesus appeared a second time, he said to Thomas, "Do not be unbelieving, but believe". Thomas responded, "My Lord and my God!" Thomas came to a deep belief, challenging us to do the same.

Before the next Olympics begin, torch-bearers will again run from the previous site to the new site. But as Christians, we always bear the resurrection torch. We must continue to hold it high for all to see in order that the world might live.

(Living with Christ)

Religious Vocations

The process of answering God's call begins in childhood. Throughout adolescence and adulthood, the attitudes assumed in childhood begin to influence the course of one's life. A vocation or a talent will not grow to fruition unless it is nurtured in childhood and adolescence by a parent. Parents, you are the hand of God ~ encourage your children to consider Church ministry, through a Religious Vocation.

(The Serra Club for priestly and Religious Vocations)

Pastoral Council Meetings

Please be reminded of the Pastoral Council Meetings of all three churches tomorrow, April 20 at 6:30 p.m.

Catholic Men's Fellowship

CMF will meet this Thursday, April 23 after the 6:30 a.m. Mass at St. Mary's. The meeting takes place in Lawless Hall

The Beauty of our Altars

Once again we thank those who decorated our altars so beautifully for this Easter Season. The decor was made possible because of those who contributed to the Easter Flower Memorial. We thank those who contributed in honor of, or in memory of a loved one. The significance of their lives are manifested in the beauty that surrounds us as we worship during this Easter Season. And as we worship, let us remember those whose names appear on the Easter Flower Memorials.

Book of Psalms ~ Bible Study

Come join us for the Study of the Book of Psalms on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. beginning May 6th and continuing through June 10th. The sessions will be held at St. Benedict the Moor Church. "Sign up Sunday" will be held on April 19th and 26th. Bible Study fliers are available in the back of the Church. To register call St. Benedict the Moor Church office at 412-281-3141.

Free Concert at Epiphany

Emily Plassman, a music therapy major at Duquesne University, will be performing her senior organ recital at Epiphany Church on this Sunday, April 19 at 3:00 p.m. Works by Sowerby, Albright, Bach, Gershwin and Moussorgsky will be featured. A reception will follow in McDowell Hall. The concert recital is free and open to the public. We congratulate Emily and wish her well!

Musical Arts Committee

We are looking for members to serve on a new committee, which will promote musical events in the downtown churches. The Church of the Epiphany has already hosted a number of successful choral and organ concerts, showcasing the recently restored Great Organ. Members are needed to assist with planning, publicity and programs. For more information please call Steve Anisko at 412-251-7946.

“I am Love and Mercy itself.

There is no misery that could be a match for my mercy; neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted, it increases. The soul that trusts in my mercy is most fortunate, because I myself take care of it”

For more information, call St. Benedict the Moor Church Office at 412-281-3141, ext. 10, or Black Catholic Ministries at 412-456-3170.

Census Update

Approximately every six years we are asked to update our census. A few weeks ago a letter was sent to all registered parishioners for this purpose. If you are a parishioner and did not receive this letter, please call the office as soon as possible. We appreciate your prompt response to this request.

Monthly Remembrance

The altar wine and hosts to be consecrated during the Masses for the month of April will be offered for the intentions of Eddie and Lou Vitti. Eddie and Lou will be remembered in each Mass that is offered this month. If you are interested in donating this gift in honor of or in memory of a loved one, please call the office or make it know through the offertory basket. The donation for the month is $100.00.

Sanctuary Lamp

The 14 day candle burns daily at the Blessed Sacrament altar to signify the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle and His sacred presence in the church. During the weeks of April 19 and 26, this candle will burn in honor of James McAndrews, requested by his wife, Eleanor McAndrews.

Attention, Friends of Appalachia!

All volunteers for the Appalachia Work Camp, July 2-12, are asked to come to a meeting, Thursday, April 23. It will be held at St. Therese Hall, Munhall at 7:30 p.m. Mark your calendars now! If you need a ride, call 412-288-0413 x213. Anyone interested in joining this group that builds houses for the needy in Kentucky, please call.

Praise to our God with Song!

In last week's bulletin we thanked all those who decorated and participated in any way to make our church and Liturgies so beautiful. A group we inadvertently failed to mention was the men's choir. We are especially grateful to them for leading us in song and praise for the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. We thank the following choir members and introduce them to you now: George Francis, Andrew Peters, John Tessaro, John Gerbec, Phil Marrone, James Stevenson, Jeff Wagner, Dave Wolbert, Bernie Henn, Jack Repine, Patrick Rogers, Cliff Nelson, Rick Stachel, Jason Coppula, Jay Motko, John Walko, Greg Furham, Dick Marshall, J.R. Daniels, (Organist and Director) and Dan Lieb, (Assistant Organist). We applaud you men, and thank you for your time and talent used so well for the ministry of music.

Welcome

We welcome to our parish, Rich, Vanessa and Kiara Sumrok, who recently registered with us. May the Sumrok Family grow in grace and the love of Christ as they pray and worship with us.

Adult Lecture Series

Bishop David Zubik will give the last lecture in the Diocesan Adult Lecture Series. Bishops Zubik's talk, "The Church Alive" will be centered on the passage from Ephesians, 4:11-13: "And he gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ". This session will be held on April 29th at 7:30 pm., St. Paul Seminary Auditorium. The lecture is free and open to all.

Commemorative Mass

We welcome the Knights of Columbus at our 9:30 a.m. Mass today to commemorate the 255th anniversary of the first Mass offered in this area. In 1754, during the French and Indian War, 600 French soldiers captured the English fort (Fort Pitt) and renamed it Fort Duquesne. On the morning of April 17, 1754, Father Denys Baron, Chaplain of the French forces, offered Mass. The Knights of Columbus remember Fr. Baron by dedicating a fourth degree assembly to him.

Job Training

Capitol HVAC is located in Washington D.C. and are traveling across the Mid-West and offering a series of intense two-day training classes to teach the skills needed by HVAC companies. Graduates of the program will possess the skills needed to be hired the next day! Focus of the course is "hands-on skills" needed to get a job. This course is ideal for High School Juniors and Seniors and anyone who are in need of serious job skills. You may call 888.909.9276 for more information

Catholic Heart WorkCamp

If you are a senior or an adult with a disability and are in need of work on your home or in your yard, this opportunity is for you! Teams of youth with adult supervision will do such work as painting, (interior and some exterior), clean yards, garages, cut, trim and mow lawns, fix/replace screens in doors and windows, repair dry wall, caulking, etc. You must be a homeowner and be present during the working hours. The work will be done from Sunday, July 19th through Thursday, July 23rd. Deadline for applications is May 2, 2009. Please contact Lally Smalley, PSM at 412-471-0257 ext.11.

Mother's Day Diaper Drive

Catholic Charities "Diaper Drive" for Mothers Day is currently being held. We will be collecting baby products in support of this effort. The following care items are called for: diapers, baby wipes, lotions, baby shampoo, diaper cream, vaseline, formula. More information coming next week regarding this collection.
