Holy Week ~ A Solemn Week

We invite everyone to come and experience the passion and drama of Holy Week. One could look at the days of the Sacred Triduum as a retreat, to step back and walk with our Lord from the Upper Room to Calvary, to the Tomb and beyond. Our Bishop has encouraged us all to be part of the Church Alive! May these holy days enable us all to discover what makes us alive. May the mercy, compassion and love of God the Father through His obedient Son by the power and wisdom of the Holy Spirit make this week holy for you.

Please note: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, daily Masses at St. Mary of Mercy and the Church of the Epiphany are as regularly scheduled. Bishop David A. Zubik will be the celebrant and homilist at the 12:00 noon Mass at St. Mary of Mercy on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week. Judas and Peter

Even where God sets no limits, man can sometimes do so. Two such instances appear here. The first becomes apparent in the figure of Judas: There is the no stemming from greed and lust, from vainglory, which refuses to accept God. This is no given because we want to make the world for ourselves and are not ready to accept it as a gift from God. "Sooner remain in debt than pay with a coin that does not bear our own portrait ~ that is what our sovereignty demands," as Nietzsche once said. The camel will not go through the eye of the needle; it sticks its proud hump up, so to speak, and is thus unable to get through the gate of merciful kindness. I think we all ought to ask ourselves, right now, whether we are not just like those people whose pride and vainglory will not let them be cleansed; let them accept the gift of Jesus Christ's healing love. Besides this refusal, which arises from the greed and the pride of man, there is, however, also the danger of piety, represented by Peter: the false humility that does not want anything so great as God bending down to us; the false humility in which pride is concealed, which dislikes forgiveness and would rather achieve its own purity; the false pride and false modesty that will not accept God's mercy. But God does not wish for false modesty that refuses his kindness; rather, he desires that humility which allows itself to be cleansed and thus becomes pure. This is the manner in which he gives himself to us.

Confessions during Holy Week

Confessions will be heard on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the regular times at the churches. There will be no confessions heard after April 8th, Wednesday of Holy Week.

Good Friday Collection

The collection taken up at all three churches on Good Friday will be for the Holy Land.

Service of Apology

At 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday of Holy Week, April 7th, Bishop David Zubik will be leading a special Service of Apology at St. Paul Cathedral, Oakland. If you, a loved one, a friend or a family member has been harmed in any way by the Church, please prayerfully consider attending. When we forgive and are forgiven, we are healed. And when we are healed, we are healthy, strong and able to truly celebrate Easter, able to live the mission that God designed for each of us.

It has been some time and some changes since we heard you at our Parish Family Gatherings. We thank you for your participation and input. As a Pastoral Council, we listened to all your comments during those gatherings and also noted consensus statements.

Now, along with our Pastoral Team, we are excited to unveil a new Mission Statement for St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church, that you helped to create! Look for a mailing to your home within the next week with more details.

"So let us spread before his feet, not garments or soulless olive branches, which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither, but ourselves, clothed in his grace, or rather, clothed completely in him. We who have been baptized into Christ must ourselves be the garments that we spread before him".
