Pastoral Team Notes

Be reconciled and return to the Lord by means of prayer, fasting and deeds of loving service. Once again this Wednesday we begin our climb up the mountain to Easter. We begin to prepare ourselves for the celebration of the Paschal Mystery. By His Paschal Mystery Jesus once and for all embraced us with the unconditional love of the Father. Our theme for Lent is "The Cross: An instrument of our Hope". It is our hope that all who worship, live, work, study and visit our parish communities throughout these next forty days will be inebriated by the love out poured from the cross of Christ which gives us hope. We would like to call your attention to the pamphlet in today's bulletin concerning all the opportunities to grow in your faith throughout the Lenten season. This coming Friday we invite all to attend the 12:00 noon Mass at Epiphany as The Most Reverend Paul J. Bradley, Auxiliary Bishop of Pittsburgh will be the Main celebrant and homilist. Our prayer is that we may all climb the mountain before us and be reconciled to God and truly celebrate the empty tomb moment of Easter every day of our lives.

Fr. Carmen and Fr. Tom

Catholic Men's Fellowship

CMF meets this Thursday after the 6:30 a.m. Mass in Lawless Hall. Come join us and bring a friend!

Adult Faith Formation Series

On March 4, the Adult Formation Series continues at St. Paul Seminary. Dr. Anthony Esolen will speak of the Pauline passage of 2 Timothy 4:7, "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." Dr. Anthony Esolen is a Professor of English at Providence College in Rhode Island; he specializes in Shakespeare, Milton, Spenser and other Renaissance and medieval literature. We invite you to join us for Dr. Esolen's presentation to be held in the Seminary Auditorium on Wednesday, March 4 at 7:30 p.m. There is no cost; all are invited to attend.

About the Safety Ambassador Program

The Pittsburgh Downtown Partnership's Safety Ambassadors help make Downtown Pittsburgh feel safe and friendly for workers, visitors, and residents alike. Seven days a week our Safety Ambassadors walk and ride bikes throughout the Golden Triangle, on the lookout for problems or people needing assistance. They are trained to deal with panhandlers, homeless individuals, and minor medical problems, as well as to provide directions and a wide range of information about Downtown and nearby attractions. For more information, call 412-325-0152.

Deanery Penance Services

During Lent, as last year, Bishop Zubik will be holding penance services with individual rite of reconciliation at nine different parishes encompassing the 16 deaneries of the diocese between February 26 and March 18. In our deanery, the scheduled date is Monday, March 2, and will be held at Sacred Heart Parish., Shadyside. All are welcome to attend this reconciliation service.
