From the Pastor's Desk...

Dear Parishioners,

Attitude

There once was a woman who woke up one morning, looked in the mirror, and noticed she had only three hairs on her head. "Well," she said, "I think I'll braid my hair today." So she did and she had a wonderful day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and saw she had only two hairs on her head. "H-M-M," she said, "I think I'll part my hair down the middle today." So she did and she had a grand day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and noticed that she had only one hair on her head. "Well," she said, "Today I'm going to wear my hair in a pony tail." So she did and had a fun, fun day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and noticed that there wasn't a single hair on her head. "YEAH!" she exclaimed, "I don't have to fix my hair today!"

Attitude is everything.

Have a Good Day!

Be kinder than necessary, for everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle. ~Anonymous

White Mass, Healthcare Workers

The Annual White Mass for all Healthcare Workers in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, will take place at St. Paul Cathedral on Sunday, Feb. 12 at the 10:00 Mass. Bishop William J. Walterscheid will be the main celebrant, and Fr. Lawrence DiNardo and Fr. Donald Breier will concelebrate. All physicians and Healthcare workers throughout the Pittsburgh Diocese are invited. Reception with light refreshments will take place after the Mass, in Lower Cathedral Hall.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are--the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!"
- Mk 1:23-25

World Day of Consecrated Life

The annual 2012 World Day for Consecrated Life will be marked in Dioceses nationwide on Sunday, Feb. 5. The theme is "For the Sake of the Gospel". On this day we recognize and give thanks for those who have consecrated their lives to God and the Church through vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. Some join a religious congregation or a secular institute. Others remain single and make profession to God through the local bishop and are known as consecrated virgins. The consecrated life is one way that men and women live out their baptismal commitment as followers of Jesus. This day we thank them for the day-to-day faithfulness of their lives. Bishop Zubik invites religious communities to the noon Mass and reception at St. Paul Cathedral next Sunday, Feb. 5. All parishioners, friends and relatives are also invited.

Volunteers Needed!

Epiphany's Fish Fry is most popular ~ in fact we are noted to have the best fish in town! We are always looking for more volunteers to accommodate our customers. During the Lenten season we are especially busy, and in need of many more hands. We ask that you consider lending your hand, even if it's only a couple hours. You will receive training, and a couple "perks" come with it! Please review the flyer and we hope you will consider. Reminder ~ our Fish Fry is open every Friday from 11:00 am until 6:30 pm. Take out orders may be called in on Thursdays between 9:00 am & 3:00 pm or Friday mornings after 9:30 am., 412-471-1008.

Year-End Statements

We will be mailing to you a list of your charitable contributions for the year 2011, by January 31, 2012.
