It has been 17 weeks in the life of the church since we have celebrated a Sunday in Ordinary Time, although today is no ordinary Sunday. It is Father's Day ~ Happy Father's Day to all our Dads!

For the record, it is the 12th Sunday of Ordinary Time and in case you didn't know, the Pittsburgh Penguins, our neighbors at the Church of the Epiphany, are the 2009 Stanley Cup Champions! You may ask why this is all important. We do, too. But, seventeen weeks ago the Penguins were in danger of being eliminated from play-off contention. Seventeen weeks ago we began to walk with our Lord through Lent, Easter, Ascension, Pentecost, celebrated the love of the Trinity and last week brought Christ into the City on Corpus Christi Sunday. A lot can happen in seventeen weeks.

Yet, as the Psalmist challenges us today, no matter what we experience, we are to "Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting." (Ps 107) As you walk with the Lord the next seventeen minutes, hours, days, months or even years, give thanks to the Lord for his love is everlasting. We can celebrate another winning team in our city that makes us the true City of Champions, but we must keep in mind, it is not how many games we win or how successful we are in the secular world, but it is how we give thanks to the Lord by the way we live our lives in Christ Jesus, that makes us true champions.

*Peace ~
Fr. Carmen and Fr. Tom*

Speaking of Seventeen Weeks.....

Seventeen weeks from today, October 4, we will be holding our Center-City Parish International Family Food Festival. We give thanks to the many hands that will make the Festival a huge success. The next Festival Meeting is this Monday, June 22 at 6:30 p.m. in McDowell Hall. Anyone wanting to help with the Festival is encouraged to attend. Watch next week's bulletin for your chance to become a Booth Sponsor, Festival Ambassador (volunteer) or a Festival Angel. For more information, call Fr. Tom, 412-261-0110.

Thank you! Thank you!

Thank you to all who made the Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession of last week a success. We hope this event will be an annual happening for our Center-City Parishes.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph in your vocation as Father.
