Scripture Insights
Practice of Hope

The scriptures often direct us to look back at what God has already done for us, but today's readings point us toward the future. In fact, our busy lives often point us in that direction ~ we fill and overflow the future pages of our appointment books. We may become so caught up with our plans for the near future that we fail to look far enough ahead to appreciate the very purpose of our lives. That purpose is "the prize" that Paul speaks of in the last line of today's Second Reading: that Christ has already won us for himself, that we are the people he made for himself and that we are to share that with others. Take a moment as you read this to relax and consider this marvelous truth. Then pencil in "the prize" a few weeks hence in that appointment calendar. See if when you next happen upon it, you smile peacefully or pause perplexed.

~~~~~
Year for Priests June 19, 2009 - June 19, 2010: Through the intercession of St. John Vianney, let us pray for the spiritual and physical well being of our priests.
