Jesus demands everything from us

What is more important to you than anything else? For the young man in today's gospel it was his possessions. He knew and followed the commandments and wanted to inherit eternal life. But not if it meant giving up what he owned, which was exactly what it did mean in his case.

Jesus' statement that a camel can go through a needle more easily than a rich person can enter heaven goes against the common beliefs of his time (and often ours). People then, believed that wealth was a sign of God's blessing. No wonder the disciples were so shocked. To this day, people try to explain away the plain meaning of Jesus' words here. But Jesus knew that rich people often put their trust in what they have rather than in God.

Jesus demands a lot from his followers. In fact, he demands everything! If we wish to follow Jesus fully, then Jesus must be the most important thing in our lives. If family, career, or even other wise noble ideals are more important to me than Jesus, then that other thing is my God, not Jesus.

Jesus calls each of us to examine our lives and let go of anything that is more important to us than he is. Such things may differ from person to person, but the call to follow Jesus at all cost remains the same for each of us.

- Living with Christ

Year for Priests: Through the intercession of St. John Vianney, may our priests grow each day in holiness and faithfulness. This week we pray for the following:

Fr. Walter Dworak, Fr. David Dzermejko, Fr. Mark Eckman, Fr. Matthew Elanjileth, Fr. Frank Erdeljac, Fr. Samuel Esposito, Fr. Robin Evanish, Fr. Pierre Falkenhan, Fr. Regis Farmer, Fr. James Farnan, Fr. Philip Farrell

*Pray daily for our parish priests and priests who assist us.
Pray for the deacons and seminarians of our diocese.
Pray for vocations to the priesthood and Religious Life.*

Epiphany Famous Fish Fry

At last, the fishing boats arrived and our Fish Fry opened its doors on Friday, October 9th. Again this season, we began the Fish Fry with a group of dedicated volunteers. Our Fish Fry is open from 11:00 a.m. until 6:00 each Friday. Take out orders are available by calling 412-471-1008 after 9:30 a.m. on Fridays. Hope to see you back again!

FESTA ITALIANA!

A wonderful celebration was experienced by parishioners, friends of Epiphany, and visitors who shared in and are proud of their ethnic heritage! Special thanks to the Chamber Choir of Immaculate Conception-St. Joseph Parish in Bloomfield who provided the music for the 10:00 Mass. We are especially grateful to our generous sponsors for the "Festa" who took this first time event "off the ground"! Hats off to the hardworking planning committee to see that all bases were covered to assure a successful event! Thanks to our faithful and dedicated volunteers who gave so much of their time and energy and didn't miss a beat from the preparation to the close of the day! We are most grateful to all those who attended this event and supported us in our efforts. Keep tuned for next week's bulletin.

Sacrament of the Sick

Sacrament of the sick and Health Awareness Day will be held on Saturday, Oct. 17. Mass of the Anointing will take place at 9:00 a.m. at Epiphany Church. Following Mass, health screenings and Free Seasonal Flu shots will be available in McDowell Hall. A continental breakfast will be served and participants will have the opportunity to visit the Spirit of Health Van. Mark your calendars for this day to care for your spiritual and physical well being. For further information, please call Lalla Smalley at 412-471-0257x11.

Dinner Theatre

Northern Lights Theatre Co. in conjunction with the Evangelization Ministry of St. Benedict the Moor Church will hold its first Dinner Theatre: "Over the Tavern".
