We are all prophets of God's love

We are all called to be prophets: to announce the good news of God's deep love for each one of us. How wonderful it would be if we could be so clear in the announcement of this message, particularly in the behavior we manifest toward others.

The first reading from Numbers provides insight into the working of God's Spirit through us. The reading highlights our tendency to try to clearly define who is a prophet and who can speak on behalf of God. Yet the suggestion in the readings from Numbers and Mark is that it is the effect we have on others that is meaningful and not whether we are part of some inner group.

So who can speak on behalf of God? We live in times where the rich and famous are often portrayed as the blessed. The letter from James suggests that it is what we do with these riches that is most meaningful. Do we use our riches for the benefit of others?

When we examine Jesus' words, we realize that our actions are more important than a simple claim to follow Jesus. As followers of Jesus, we are called to bring blessings to others. The life and love we receive from God is intimately connected to our call to be prophets and our life of service in the Body of Christ.

- Living with Christ

Year for Priests: Through the intercession of St. John Vianney, may our priests always be a model of priesthood by word and spirit. This week we pray for the following:

Fr. Michael Decewicz, Fr. Gervase Degenhardt, OFM Cap, Fr. Anthony DeLuca, Fr. Dale DeNinno, Fr. Louis DeNinno, Fr. George DeVille, Fr. David DeWitt, Fr. Lawrence DiNardo, Fr. John Dinello, Fr. David Dixon, Fr. Jerome Dixon.

*Pray daily for our parish priests and priests who assist us.
Pray for the deacons and seminarians of our diocese.
Pray for vocations to the priesthood and Religious Life.*

Health Ministry

The Center City parish members are invited to St. Benedict the Moor on Sunday, Sept. 27th from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. to "An apple a day Sunday". What better way to kick off a new season than through a new healthier you!!. Get your blood pressure checked, grab an apple, ask some questions and learn more about eating better. Now is the time ~ St. Benedict the Moor is the place! Because of the G-20 Summit, the regularly scheduled Health Van will not be in our neighborhood this month. Take the opportunity to come to "An apple a day Sunday"!

Sacrament of the Sick

Sacrament of the sick and Health Awareness Day will be held on Saturday, Oct. 17. Mass of the Anointing will take place at 9:00 a.m. at Epiphany Church. Following Mass, health screenings and Free Seasonal Flu shots will be available in McDowell Hall. A continental breakfast will be served. Participants will have the opportunity to visit the Spirit of Health Van. Mark your calendars for this day to care for your spiritual and physical well being.

Duquesne University offers something new!

Duquesne is offering a number of services, including psychological assessment, individual counseling, couples and family services, children's assessment and interventions (children of deployed parents are at higher risk for difficulties). Some returning service members and their families and loved ones might appreciate that the Duquesne University Psychology Clinic is a Catholic institution. One service to be noted is an eight session post-deployment course promoting family reintegration. Duquesne also has available seminars, workshops and discussion groups relative to families experiencing the trauma of war. For further information call 412-396-6563.

John Geinzer at 412,793-4511.

Stitches of Love

For over fifteen years Fr. Tom's Mom has been leading a group of women in West Pittsburg and New Castle in making afghans for the poor and homeless. Recently, they achieved over the 1,000 mark! Time has taken its toll on those who are able to crochet. Would you like to help? You can...by either donating squares 7" x 9", or yarn to make the squares and ultimately to put the squares together to make the afghans. Each afghan takes 54 squares and when completed it looks like a patchwork quilt. Afghans are distributed through the Red Door at St. Mary's and area Red Cross. This project has reached as far as Kentucky, West Virginia, Louisiana, Mississippi and Ohio. If you are interested, just drop off your donated goods to any of our parish offices and mark the bag "Stitches of Love". Thank you!
